

Drama and Musicality: Pocahontas

Topic Overview

Children will be using the Film Pocahontas to inspire our learning of drama and music. Children will explore the different message's that can be expressed through the use of drama and music.

How it teaches 'Community'

- We will learning how different communities across the world care for on another.

How it teaches 'Identity'

- Throughout the topic, we will be discussing how different music and drama makes us feel and how it can develop the person we are growing to be.

How it teaches 'Connections'

- We will talk about the similarities and differences of both our own culture and beliefs and that of others.

Project Finale

Parents will be invited to come and watch children perform songs from the film Pocahontas and to watch a dance inspired by Native Americans.

Literacy links

- Writing invitations to the parents for our final performance

Numeracy links

- Using our knowledge of money to help costing out the refreshments we are providing for the performance.

Other subject links

- History: Looking at the history of Native America and Pocahontas
- Geography: Looking at different landscapes and comparing them.
- PE: Watching and developing our own Native American dancing