

Superheroes Who are the everyday superheroes?

Topic Overview

Looking at famous superheroes and how they help others. How to become an everyday superhero—making good choices around others at home and in school. Who are the real superheroes in our community? Respecting and celebrating differences. Looking at famous superheroes and how they help others. How to become an everyday superhero—making good choices around others at home and in school. Who are the real superheroes in our community? Respecting and celebrating differences.

How it teaches 'Community'

- Who do the superhero characters help?
- Why do they want to help others?
- Who are the real superheroes in our

How it teaches 'Identity'

- Who is my favourite superhero and why?
- What do I believe to be right or wrong?

How it teaches 'Connections'

- How can I help others in my family, school and community?
- How do I treat others when I am happy or when I am sad?

Project Finale

Parents come in to see a carousel of our wonderful learning:

Create our own comic strip story.

Design and create our own superhero costume and mask.

Superhero action photo wall.

Literacy links

- Adventure stories—looking at heroes and villains
- Onomatopoeic language
- Reading comics and action stories like

Numeracy links

- Place value—patterns in the number system (2s, 5s and 10s)
- One more, one less, finding numbers between.

Other subject links

- RE—respecting different beliefs
- PSHCE—making good choices on the playground.