Room 13 – from Janey

Back to school! Room 13 was open today for the first time this term. We were busy preparing for an exhibition we'll be taking part in at Crawley Museum next year; today we've been making stitched portraits of our homes. If you look carefully, each home has been hand drawn and then stitched using free machine embroidery. Fantastic work by Years 4 & 5!

West Sussex Mind

It is sadly a fact that some children cope with stress and anxiety, through self harm. This can pass unnoticed, but it is not uncommon. West Sussex Mind provide an excellent network support service for parents and carers of children who self harm. The date for the next network meeting is Wednesday 3rd November. All personal details are kept confidential and the information part of the session can be accessed later, if you register but are unable to attend. West Sussex Mind, Tel: 07468 516818. Email: training@westsussexmind.org

Kind Regards
